

Antônio Rahal Junior

Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein, Brazil

Biography

Graduated in Medicine from the Faculty of Medicine of the University of São Paulo - FMUSP (Conclusion-2005), Residency in Radiology and Diagnostic Imaging by the Institute of Radiology of the Hospital das Clínicas of FMUSP - INRAD / HCFMUSP (Conclusion-2010), Post-Graduation in Oncoradiology and Interventional Radiology from the Instituto do Câncer do Estrado de São Paulo - ICESP (Conclusion-2011). Member of the Paulista Society of Radiology (SPR). Title of Specialist in Diagnostic Imaging by the Brazilian College of Radiology (CBR). Specialist in Interventional Angioradiology and Radiology by SOBRICE. He is currently Scientific Coordinator of the Center for Interventional Medicine - Percutaneous Intervention Sector - Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein (HIAE). Assistant Physician, Department of Imaging (Ultrasound - Emergency) and Interventional Medicine Center, Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein (HIAE). Effective member of the faculty of the Israeli Health Sciences Faculty (FICS) since 2016- abdominal morphology module. He served as a member of the clinical staff of Professor Edmundo Vasconcelos Hospital (HPEV) for seven years, ending his activities to devote himself more intensively to research and teaching practice at Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein and FICS-HIAE. He works as a radiologist and interventional physician at Hospital da Luz and at the Sino-Brazilian Hospital and Maternity Hospital (Rede D'Or São Luis). Participated in MÉDICOS / GNT Documentary Series, Season 2 (Episodes 01, 05, 06, 09), in the year 2015. Coordinator of the Interventional Radiology Study Group of the Paulista Radiology Society (SPR) - monthly at Hotel Maksoud Plaza - G.E.R.I. Coordinator of the Emergency Radiology Online Course of SPR, effective since 2018. Coordinator of the Interventional Radiology Journey within the congress of the São Paulo Radiology Journey since its inception (2019) He pioneered the introduction of the Radiofrequency Ablation technique applied to thyroid nodules IN BRAZIL, being the first Interventional Radiologist to perform this procedure in our country, in April 2018, at Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein. Since then it has been performing ablations on symptomatic benign nodules with excellent results, even under research project submission. Particularly dedicated to percutaneous intervention in head and neck area, participating as the first author in the publication of the first national TI-RADS, in 2016.
